Best Kabir Ke Dohe In English

Kabir Panth is the huge religious community which identifies the Kabir as the originator of the Sant Mat sects. The members of Kabir Panth are known as the Kabir panthis who had extended all over the over north and central India.

Some of the great writings of the Kabir Das are Bijak, Kabir Granthawali, Anurag Sagar, Sakhi Granth etc. It is clearly not known about his birth parents but it is noted that he has been grew up by the very poor family of Muslim weavers.

He was very spiritual person and became a great Sadhu. He got fame all over the world because of his influential traditions and culture. The people in the community are called Kabir Panthis and are spread all over India. Kabir had written some epic Granths (books). Some of the writings include Sakhi Granth, Kabir Granthawali etc.

Every year Kabir Das Jayanti is celebrated on different dates. It is basically the celebration of birthday of poet Kabirdas. Childhood It is said that the background of his family or parents is not clear, but Kabirdas grew up in very miserable conditions amongst desolated Muslim weavers.

He was very spiritual person and became a great Sadhu. Though his birthdate is not known but he is supposed to have spent almost one hundred and twenty years on earth.

He was born in the year 1398. Training Basically, he did not take any spiritual training, but received fundamentals from his Guru named, Ramananda, in his early childhood. But it was his inner voice that helped him seek the pathway.

He used to write poetries on his own. He never went to acquire education. He was a self-made man and discovered everything on his own. It was his latent talent that made him create legendary writings. His writings changed the way Indians used to think.

His works The messages in his writings were directed towards those whom we call in modern day language as below poverty line, were then called the downtrodden, poor, miserable, desolated and deprived of basic necessities like food, shelter and clothing. Primary purpose of his legends was to "protest against social discrimination and economic exploitation".

His best work is 'Bijak'. He has his collection of writings including poetries that elucidated his universal spiritual point of view. His work is his legacy. He died in the year 1518.
